

YOUR SUPER IS NOT SAFE

In 2010 a regulated investment called TRIO CAPITAL collapsed in the worst superannuation fraud in Australia's history. Thousands of hard working Australians lost their superannuation and savings overnight as 169 million dollars was looted from their superannuation funds through a Hong Kong based hedge fund called GCSL.

Incredibly, the Australian prudential regulator APRA had five meetings with Trio Capital Trustees but did nothing to protect the savings of Australian superannuation fund members whilst their savings and futures were being stolen by an international fraud scheme.

Incredibly, ASIC the corporate policeman is refusing to release critical information and documentation about GCSL because of a 'confidentiality' agreement with Hong Kong. ASIC has said that it will not pursue the GCSL criminals and their associates, some of whom may be Australians, whilst it continues to deny access to information critical to bringing these criminals to justice.

The Gillard government does nothing to ensure transparency, protection and justice in the massive Australian superannuation system that holds 1.3 trillion dollars of our savings and future.

Victims of Financial Fraud, an organisation of the victims of the Trio fraud demands that:

- APRA be reformed and strengthened to protect our superannuation and savings from fraud and fund negligence
- ASIC immediately make public all documentation and evidence in relation to the Trio collapse and the GCSL fraud and to prosecute the criminals
- All victims of the Trio Capital collapse be fully compensated without discrimination.

Please support us in our fight for justice and bringing international corporate criminals to justice.
